

The Role of the Board of Trustees

Foothills is a congregational church, which means that the authority ultimately lies in the hands of its members. There is a democratically elected Board that governs by policy. The current Board Policy book can be found here.

The policies and procedures detailed in this handbook are directed by these Board policies. More information about the role of the Board can be found in the Policy book.

The Board of Trustees is in turn governed by the By-Laws of the congregation, which can be found here.
